

ONLINE COURSE

Cancer Center

Oncology Patient Navigator Training: The Fundamentals

A no-cost online training from the George Washington University (GW) Cancer Center's Online Academy

OVERVIEW

Through a series of self-paced modules, the training walks participants through:

- An overview of patient navigation and core competencies
- The basics of health care
- The basics of patient navigation
- Enhancing communication
- Professionalism
- Enhancing practice

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Participants will be able to:

- Describe social determinants of health and health disparities
- Assess patients' barriers and strengths and their ability to overcome barriers
- Use problem-solving strategies to develop a plan with the patient

AUDIENCE

Oncology patient navigators and other health care professionals can benefit from this training. Visit our website to learn more about continuing education credits offered.

HOW TO ENROLL

Visit the GW Cancer Center's Online Academy at gwccacademy.org to create an account and register for the course.

For more information about this or other online courses, visit our website or email us:

gwccacademy.org | cancercontrol@gwu.edu